

MANAGORE

In the depths of a mythic world, the one and only opportunity for success is to become a hero. There the villagers will throw you up in the air shouting “hooray...” and the princess will whisper “My hero, my hero!”. Step inside the portal and enter this magical world. You are the chosen one. You must become this hero. Your task is to join Managore, choose a race, make a powerful guild, defeat nine keepers, slay the mighty dragon Managore and leave your mark in history and the Hall of fame.

The question is – what difficulties will you face while making your way to victory? There are three absolutely different races – Orcs, Elves and Undead. Each of them has 18 different units, 19 different buildings and only one goal – to win.

The Orcs are powerful melee warriors, which can easily provide food for their army and for all of their needs.

The Elves are extremely skilled in Forest hunting. They are mighty and cunning archers. Oriented towards robbing, they can easily provide Gold.

The Undead are not mortal anymore. With wizardry they use powerful spells to defeat their enemies. By taking advantage of this skill, they easily provide themselves with Wood.

By choosing one of them you begin an adventure. The mentor will help you build your way up.

Evolve your kingdom's economy, train your first warriors and travel to your enemy's kingdom using the Map

In the world of Managore there are several objects, beside the enemies, you can attack, enchant or plunder. Forests, Caravans and Fields can provide you with resources, while Enchanted Forest can turn your craft items into mighty artifacts.

Being in a guild gives you a chance to fight with the keepers and the Dragon. Your trace in the Hall of fame will be much greater if you lead one of them – especially the winning one.

You can seek-out and destroy your enemies any time, not only by catching their army, but also on the mystical hero battleground, called Arena. If you want to win all of your duels and battles you should equip your hero with the most powerful of all artifacts.

Get involved in the adventure! Invite your friends and together achieve the greatest victory you have ever had. Here, you will meet thousands of other players, will experience cool moments of great fun and will participate in epic battles. Don't be shy, show the world your strive for victory and your unbreakable spirit! They will remember your name for ages!
